

Workshop on philosophy and cognitive science

Date: Thursday 1 May

Location: Senate Room, Level 3, Lincoln Building C8A, Macquarie University

All welcome

Programme

(9.45 coffee)

10.00-11.15

Fiona Macpherson (Glasgow) - Disjunctivism, self-knowledge, and Anton's syndrome

Coffee break

11.30-12.15

Max Coltheart - Thoughts, beliefs, and delusions

12.15-1.00

Amanda Barnier - Delusions and hypnosis, features vs. processes, one- or two-factor accounts

Lunch break

2.00-3.15

Larry Shapiro (Wisconsin) - The science behind multiple realization

3.15-4.00

Liz Schier - Phenomenal consciousness without access

Tea break

4.15-5.00

Anina Rich - The role of attention and awareness in synaesthesia

5.00-5.45

Wayne Christensen & John Sutton - Habits, intentionality, and agency

Dinner afterwards, venue tbc, all welcome.

Enquiries to John Sutton, jsutton@maccs.mq.edu.au

The workshop is part of 'From the Neuron to the Self: human nature and the new cognitive neurosciences', Macquarie University Research Innovation Fund project, Department of Philosophy and Macquarie Centre for Cognitive Science (MACCS).